About the University

Edge Hill University is an ambitious institution, based on an attractive, award-winning 160-acre campus in Lancashire, close to Liverpool and Manchester. The University aspires to combine excellent research of reach and significance with a world-class student experience.

Edge Hill University is ranked as Gold in the Teaching Excellence Framework (TEF), the government's evaluation of excellence in teaching quality, learning environment and student outcomes.

Edge Hill is one of the select few universities to have held the coveted UK University of the Year title, awarded by Times Higher Education (2014/2015) and it appears in the Times Higher's Global Ranking (801-1000). Recent successes include a Global Teaching Excellence Spotlight Award (2018) from Advance HE in association with Times Higher Education, being ranked in the top 10 for teaching by the Times/Sunday Times Good University Guide 2017, top in the North West for student experience (Time Higher Education 2017), and top in the UK for student accomodation in the 2017 WhatUni Awards.

When Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year title for 2014/15, Times Higher Education described it as "a great success story...an institution that improves and impresses year after year". The award recognised its outstanding achievements in student satisfaction, staff engagement, graduate employment and innovation as well as its strengthening research profile, investment and growth. It also celebrated Edge Hill University's distinct role in "transforming lives" – reflecting a distinctive philosophy of creating opportunity from excellence.

Edge Hill University has achieved both Athena Swan Bronze and the European Commission's 'HR Excellence in Research Award', which acknowledges alignment with the principles of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for researcher recruitment. The process incorporates both the QAA Code of Practice for Research Degree Programmes and the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers.

To gain the HR Excellence in Research Award Edge Hill University has undertaken a comprehensive Gap Analysis exercise in order to generate a 2-year action plan (2018-2020), based on the Concordat Principles, to enable continuation of good practice and facilitate improvement in areas identified as needing development.

About the Role

The Department of History, Geography and Social Sciences is seeking to appoint an experienced Lecturer / Senior Lecturer in Politics who will also assume the role of Programme Leader for our BSc (Hons) in Politics and International Relations from September 2024 onwards.

As Lecturer or Senior Lecturer in Politics, you will be required to make a significant contribution to the delivery of our Politics programmes, which include BSc (Hons) Politics and International Relations, BA (Hons) History and Politics and LLB (Hons) Law with Politics. Specifically, we welcome candidates who can contribute to, or lead modules, across a range of areas including, but not limited to, Parliamentary Studies, Policy-making, European Politics, and Introductory International Relations. You will be expected to possess the leadership and organisational experience necessary to be an effective Programme Leader. You will also be expected to contribute to the research activities of one of our Research Units of Assessment and meet the qualitative and quantitative requirements for submission to the next Research Excellence exercise. We would particularly welcome candidates who are able to apply their research to public engagement or who have experience of building contacts with those working in politics and politically related fields.

About you

You will be an enthusiastic and friendly professional with excellent communication and interpersonal skills coupled with a commitment to providing an excellent student experience. An established or promising research profile in Politics or interdisciplinary areas and very good teaching experience on undergraduate Politics or related programmes is essential.

To be successful you will further enrich our students' experience through your expertise and subject knowledge as evidenced through your qualifications and experience. In return, you will join a forward thinking and dynamic team that pushes the boundaries of curriculum development.

Reward & Benefits

We want you to feel happy when you come to work and proud when you go home.

From the moment you join us you have the opportunity to enhance your skills. We offer various routes for progression, a range of specialist development sessions and academic development opportunities along with an award winning and comprehensive staff health & wellbeing programme (HR Excellence Awards 2017). This means you will receive a full academic induction, be enrolled if appropriate on our PGCTHE, benefit from the Edge Hill University CPD scheme ((UKPSF) and our annual University Learning and Teaching Day all to support your professional development.

About Us

Edge Hill University is an ambitious institution, based on an attractive, award-winning 160-acre campus in Lancashire, close to Liverpool and Manchester. The University aspires to combine excellent research of reach and significance with a world-class student experience.

Edge Hill University was named Modern University of the Year in the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2022 and shortlisted for the overall UK University of the Year award. With this award the University was called 'one of the shining stars of the modern university sector.' The award has come closely after Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year in the Educate North Awards 2020/21.

Edge Hill University appears in the Times Higher Global Rankings (801-1000) and has previously held the coveted UK University of the Year title, awarded by Times Higher Education in 2014/2015.

Other recent successes include a Global Teaching Excellence Spotlight Award (2018) from Advance HE in association with Times Higher Education, being ranked in the top 10 for teaching by the Times/Sunday Times Good University Guide 2017, top in the North West for student experience (Times Higher Education 2017), and top in the UK for Student accommodation in the 2017 WhatUni Awards.

Edge Hill University has achieved both Athena Swan Bronze and the European Commission's 'HR Excellence in Research Award' (first awarded 2018 and re-awarded 2021), which acknowledges alignment with the principles of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for researcher recruitment. The process incorporates both the QAA Code of Practice for Research Degree Programmes and the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers.
