About the Faculty

The Faculty of Health, Social Care and Medicine is a major provider of health, social care, and medical education. It is a dynamic and responsive Faculty with a wide range of programmes and a growing research profile. The Faculty is made up of three schools:

- The School of Allied Health, Social Work & Wellbeing
- The Medical School
- The School of Nursing & Midwifery

Nursing and midwifery provision spans the Department of Adult Nursing, Department of Children's Nursing and Midwifery and Department of Mental Health and Learning Disabilities and includes a wide range of programmes at undergraduate and postgraduate levels in all four fields of nursing, including dual registration, midwifery, and a nationally unique portfolio of programmes, including dual professions e.g., nurse & social work, nurse paramedic. It has growing provision for apprenticeships. Placement learning is integral to our programmes, and we have strong working relationships with external health and social care providers. Cross-Faculty research aligns with the following areas:

- Children, Young People and Families
- Prevention and Management of Conditions in Adult/Primary Care/Children's/Mental Health/Learning Disability Nursing
- Improving Professional Practice

Further developing research capacity and capability remains a key focus for the Faculty and this is of prime importance in nursing and midwifery.

The Faculty has facilities in Ormskirk, Manchester and on a number of local NHS sites. It has recently benefited from a multi-million-pound investment in a state-of-the-art Clinical Skills and Simulation Centre.

Academic Career Pathways

The University has introduced career pathways for academic staff. Academic staff now have a clear career pathway involving a series of levels with distinct roles profiles, each with its unique requirements. Each profile sets out what is expected of an academic at the particular level.

About the Role

As Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Midwifery Education (Grade 8/9), you will be required to make a significant contribution to the delivery of relevant modules and other areas of our core curriculum depending on your areas of expertise and experience.

You will be expected to contribute to the research activities of one of our Research Units and meet the qualitative and quantitative requirements for submission to the next Research Excellence exercise.

About You

The post holder will play a significant role in the design, delivery, and evaluation of the midwifery curriculum and be involved in teaching across the entire midwifery portfolio, including relevant and appropriate CPD provision. The post holder will be expected to have recent experience in an academic role and/or significant recent, in midwifery relevant practice.

The successful candidate will be appropriately qualified in midwifery. You will also possess significant and demonstrable practice-based/academic experience underpinned by a sound working knowledge of the contemporary professional landscape.

Ideally, you will have relevant HEI experience, underpinned by a sound working knowledge of contemporary issues in midwifery, with a high level of awareness of the interprofessional agenda. It would be advantageous to have experience of research activity and publications.

You will be an enthusiastic, innovative, and engaging professional with significant teaching/practice experience, able to deliver high quality teaching to our students. The successful post holder will have an effective communication & leadership style and possess excellent interpersonal skills. Time and workload management skills are a key requirement to this post and having a strong commitment to the welfare and success of students will be key to your success in a growing department.

Reward & Benefits

We want you to feel happy when you come to work and proud when you go home.

From the moment you join us you have the opportunity to enhance your skills. We offer various routes for progression, a range of specialist development sessions and academic development opportunities along with an award winning and comprehensive staff health & wellbeing programme (HR Excellence Awards 2017). This means you will receive a full academic induction, be enrolled if appropriate on our PGCTHE, benefit from the Edge Hill University CPD scheme (UKPSF) and our annual University Learning and Teaching Day all to support your professional development. You may also benefit from joining one of our free evening foreign language classes

About Us

Edge Hill University is an ambitious institution, based on an attractive, award-winning 160-acre campus in Lancashire, close to Liverpool and Manchester. The University aspires to combine excellent research of reach and significance with a world-class student experience.

Edge Hill University was named Modern University of the Year in the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2022 and shortlisted for the overall UK University of the Year award. With this award the University was called 'one of the shining stars of the modern university sector.' The award has come closely after Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year in the Educate North Awards 2020/21.

Edge Hill University appears in the Times Higher Global Rankings (801-1000) and has previously held the coveted UK University of the Year title, awarded by Times Higher Education in 2014/2015.

Other recent successes include a Global Teaching Excellence Spotlight Award (2018) from Advance HE in association with Times Higher Education, being ranked in the top 10 for teaching by the Times/Sunday Times Good University Guide 2017, top in the North West for student experience (Time Higher Education 2017), and top in the UK for student accommodation in the 2017 WhatUni Awards.

Edge Hill University has achieved both Athena Swan Bronze and the European Commission's 'HR Excellence in Research Award' (first awarded 2018 and reawarded 2021), which acknowledges alignment with the principles of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for researcher recruitment. The process incorporates both the QAA Code of Practice for Research Degree Programmes and the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers.
