About the Faculty

We have been educating the teaching and education workforce for almost 140 years. Our vision of 'working creatively with others to enhance life chances' is at the heart of who we are as a working family. We focus relentlessly on harnessing the power of education to transform lives, every day, in everything we do with our students and strategic partners.

The Faculty is one of the largest Initial Teacher Education providers in the country and in March 2024, became the first higher education institution in England to be rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted in all three teacher education phases. Alongside this we have an expanding portfolio of well-respected education provision where we work with diverse professionals to address local, national, and global challenges in education and related fields.

We believe that everyone has the right to access education regardless of their learning journey and life experiences. Our portfolio provides an inclusive lifelong learning journey in education, from foundation degrees to doctoral study, recognising the experiences our students bring as they study with us.

We are a diverse, publicly engaged, collaborative team with an international reputation for developing and implementing impactful research, knowledge exchange, and continuing professional development.

About You

You will be an enthusiastic, highly skilled and friendly professional with excellent communication, leadership and interpersonal skills coupled with a commitment to providing an excellent experience for our students, staff, and external partners. To be successful you will enrich our students' experience through your expertise and subject knowledge as evidenced through your qualifications and extensive experience of teaching at undergraduate and postgraduate level. You will ideally have previous experience of successfully supervising postgraduate students, and of providing all students with a high-quality learning experience resulting in excellent graduate outcomes.

You will also have a growing track record of research in education and your specific discipline and of engaging in externally funded research, knowledge exchange, and continuing professional development.

The successful candidate will be expected to lead the PGCE Secondary (11-16) English with QTS programme, playing a significant role in the planning, teaching and assessment of modules. Candidates should be committed to student success and innovation in Learning, Teaching and Assessment.

Reward & Benefits

We want you to feel happy when you come to work and proud when you go home.

From the moment you join us you have the opportunity to enhance your skills. We offer various routes for progression, a range of specialist development sessions and academic development opportunities along with an award winning and comprehensive staff health & wellbeing programme (HR Excellence Awards 2017). This means you will receive a full academic induction, be enrolled if appropriate on our PGCTHE, benefit from the Edge Hill University CPD scheme (UKPSF) and our annual University Learning and Teaching Day all to support your professional development. You may also benefit from joining one of our free evening foreign language classes.

This is just a taste of what we are able to offer you at Edge Hill University.

About Us

Edge Hill University is an ambitious institution, based on an attractive, award-winning 160-acre campus in Lancashire, close to Liverpool and Manchester. The University aspires to combine excellent research of reach and significance with a world-class student experience.

Edge Hill University was named Modern University of the Year in the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2022 and shortlisted for the overall UK University of the Year award. With this award the University was called 'one of the shining stars of the modern university sector.' The award has come closely after Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year in the Educate North Awards 2020/21.

Edge Hill University appears in the Times Higher Global Rankings (801-1000) and has previously held the coveted UK University of the Year title, awarded by Times Higher Education in 2014/2015.

Other recent successes include a Global Teaching Excellence Spotlight Award (2018) from Advance HE in association with Times Higher Education, being ranked in the top 10 for teaching by the Times/Sunday Times Good University Guide 2017, top in the North West for student experience (Time Higher Education 2017), and top in the UK for student accommodation in the 2017 WhatUni Awards.

Edge Hill University has achieved both Athena Swan Bronze and the European Commission's 'HR Excellence in Research Award' (first awarded 2018 and reawarded 2021), which acknowledges alignment with the principles of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for researcher recruitment. The process incorporates both the QAA Code of Practice for Research Degree Programmes and the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers
