About the Faculty

We have been educating the teaching and education workforce for almost 140 years. Our vision of 'working creatively with others to enhance life chances' is at the heart of who we are as a working family. We focus relentlessly on harnessing the power of education to transform lives, every day, in everything we do with our students and strategic partners.

The Faculty is one of the largest Initial Teacher Education providers in the country and in March 2024, became the first higher education institution in England to be rated 'outstanding' by Ofsted in all three teacher education phases. Alongside this we have an expanding portfolio of well-respected education provision where we work with diverse professionals to address local, national, and global challenges in education and related fields.

We believe that everyone has the right to access education regardless of their learning journey and life experiences. Our portfolio provides an inclusive lifelong learning journey in education, from foundation degrees to doctoral study, recognising the experiences our students bring as they study with us.

We are a diverse, publicly engaged, collaborative team with an international reputation for developing and implementing impactful research, knowledge exchange, and continuing professional development. The Faculty is also home to two research centres: the Centre for Mental Health, Sport and Physical Activity Research and International Centre for Early Years Education.

About the Role

As Lecturer or Senior Lecturer in Physical Education, you will be required to make a significant contribution to the delivery of our undergraduate and postgraduate curriculum in these areas. You will have Qualified Teacher Status and have significant experience of leading on or contributing to the delivery of university-based Initial Teacher Education at Level 7. We would particularly welcome candidates who have experience of teaching, research and knowledge exchange in one or more of the following areas:

- Education and sport-for-change programmes
- Mental health and wellbeing
- Professional learning and practice
- Special educational needs and disabilities
- Technology and digital learning
- Trauma-informed approaches

- Youth and community development
- Youth cultures and lifestyles

You will be expected to contribute to the research activities of one of our Research Units and meet the qualitative and quantitative requirements for submission to the next Research Excellence exercise. You will also be expected to contribute to the work of at least one of the Faculty's research centres, and have the opportunity to supervise postgraduate students where appropriate.

About You

You will be an enthusiastic, highly skilled and friendly professional with excellent communication, leadership and interpersonal skills coupled with a commitment to providing an excellent experience for our students, staff, and external partners. To be successful you will enrich our students' experience through your expertise and subject knowledge as evidenced through your qualifications and extensive experience of teaching, ideally at undergraduate and postgraduate level. You will have previous experience of providing all students with a high-quality learning experience resulting in excellent outcomes, and preferably have a track record of successfully supervising postgraduate students to completion. Where possible, you will also have a growing track record of research in your subject and of engaging in externally funded research, knowledge exchange, and continuing professional development.

Reward & Benefits

We want you to feel happy when you come to work and proud when you go home.

From the moment you join us you have the opportunity to enhance your skills. We offer various routes for progression, a range of specialist development sessions and academic development opportunities along with an award winning and comprehensive staff health & wellbeing programme (HR Excellence Awards 2017). This means you will receive a full academic induction, be enrolled if appropriate on our PGCTHE, benefit from the Edge Hill University CPD scheme (UKPSF) and our annual University Learning and Teaching Day all to support your professional development.

This is just a taste of what we are able to offer you at Edge Hill University.

About Us

Edge Hill University is an ambitious institution, based on an attractive, award-winning 160-acre campus in Lancashire, close to Liverpool and Manchester. The University aspires to combine excellent research of reach and significance with a world-class student experience.

Edge Hill University was named Modern University of the Year in the Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2022 and shortlisted for the overall UK University of the Year award. With this award the University was called 'one of the shining stars of the modern university sector.' The award has come closely after Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year in the Educate North Awards 2020/21.

Edge Hill University appears in the Times Higher Global Rankings (801-1000) and has previously held the coveted UK University of the Year title, awarded by Times Higher Education in 2014/2015.

Other recent successes include a Global Teaching Excellence Spotlight Award (2018) from Advance HE in association with Times Higher Education, being ranked in the top 10 for teaching by the Times/Sunday Times Good University Guide 2017, top in the North West for student experience (Time Higher Education 2017), and top in the UK for student accommodation in the 2017 WhatUni Awards.

Edge Hill University has achieved both Athena Swan Bronze and the European Commission's 'HR Excellence in Research Award' (first awarded 2018 and reawarded 2021), which acknowledges alignment with the principles of the European Charter for Researchers and Code of Conduct for researcher recruitment. The process incorporates both the QAA Code of Practice for Research Degree Programmes and the Concordat to Support the Career Development of Researchers.

Job Description for Lecturer (Grade 8)

Duties and Responsibilities

The responsibilities of a Lecturer are wide ranging and many change over time according to the development needs of the Department and the individual. As a Lecturer you will be expected to:

Teaching, Learning & Scholarship

1. Contribute to the curriculum development of the Subject/Department academic programmes and wider Faculty where appropriate, producing high quality, innovative teaching and learning material, informed by research and professional practice (where appropriate) to support and develop student learning, engagement and application in practice (where appropriate) at undergraduate and postgraduate level;
2. Enhance the quality of education and provision by ensuring that you maintain high standards of learning and teaching;
3. Use teaching and learning strategies, which encourage student involvement and advance their independent learning, adapting delivery to suit learners' needs;
4. Engage in subject professional and pedagogy research and/or scholarship as required to support teaching activities;
5. Contribute effectively to the design, planning and administration of the curriculum including preparation of your own teaching and learning materials and course documentation;
6. Contribute effectively to curriculum delivery, at the modular level, taking lead responsibility, where appropriate, within undergraduate and/or postgraduate levels;

Student Support

1. Effectively oversee the welfare, progress, examination, assessment and marking of the students as designated by the Head of Department (or their deputy);
2. Provide effective support to individual students and groups of students in accordance with Edge Hill University's procedures, referring students to further support services as appropriate;

4. Undertake, as and when required, and in accordance with Edge Hill procedures, personal tutor responsibilities (academic and pastoral);

5. Support learning in practice, including placement/mentor preparation and practice audits (where appropriate).

Research

For those who have significant Responsibility for Research:

1. Publish, or show evidence of working towards publication of research consistent with the department's priorities in appropriate peer-reviewed journals;
2. Begin to develop and maintain links with cognate disciplines within the Faculty, University, Industry and the Community as part of a coherent research-dissemination strategy;
3. Collaborate with colleagues to identify and make credible bids for external funding through research grants and contracts and in developing collaborative research income- generating ideas.

Leadership, Service & Externality

1. Be an active member of relevant Departmental/Faculty/Institutional committees and contribute to partnership working with external colleagues and service users (where appropriate);
2. Contribute to faculty business, project management and/or enterprise;
3. Assist in student recruitment activities including Open Days, interviews or auditions;
4. Engage in appropriate training programmes provided by the University such as preparation for VASP membership;
5. Establish networks (professional and academic) to maintain currency and personal development;
6. Carry out any other duties as reasonably requested by Head of Department. Generally, these will be relatively limited in order to allow the role holder to take advantage of planned developmental and research opportunities.

Applicants with Qualified Teacher Status will also be expected to:

- Act as a Link Tutor to support students, their Mentors and Supervisors during Professional Practice and Work-Based Learning experiences, ensuring that students' targets and individual needs are met and providing appropriate guidance to schools and settings to ensure the quality of training and support.
- Play a significant role in expanding existing partnership work in your specialist area through engagement with schools, education providers and other organisations.

- Play a significant role in ensuring readiness for Ofsted inspections.
