About the Faculty

The Faculty of Health, Social Care and Medicine is one of the leading providers of education to the health and social care workforce in the region. It has a growing national and international research profile. It has excellent relationships with external health and social care providers that ensures that its work is of direct relevance to, and impacts positively on, the rapidly changing health and social care environment. The Faculty is made up of three schools: The School of Allied Health, Social Work and Wellbeing, The Medical School and The School of Nursing and Midwifery. Practice learning is integral to our programmes, and we have strong working relationships with external health and social care providers. Cross-Faculty research aligns with the following areas: • Children, Young People and Families • Prevention and Management of Conditions in Adults • Improving Professional Practice The Faculty has facilities in Ormskirk, Manchester and on a number of local NHS sites. It benefits from a multi-million-pound investment in a state-of-the-art Clinical Skills and Simulation Centre.

About the Role

As Lecturer/Senior Lecturer in Social Work, you will be required to make a significant contribution to the delivery of our Social Work programmes, contributing to the delivery of our modules on Social Work programmes and other areas of our core curriculum depending on your areas of expertise and experience. We would particularly welcome candidates who could teach one or more of our Social Work modules (UG and PG).

You will be expected to contribute to the research activities of one of our Research Units and meet the qualitative and quantitative requirements for submission to the next Research Excellence exercise.

About You

You will be an enthusiastic and friendly professional with excellent communication and interpersonal skills coupled with a commitment to providing an excellent student experience. An established or promising research profile in Social Work and very good teaching experience on undergraduate Social Work programmes is essential. A background in Social Work with supporting qualifications and experience would be an advantage.

To be successful you will further enrich our student's experience through your expertise and subject knowledge as evidenced through your qualifications and extensive experience of professional practice. In return, you will join a forward thinking and dynamic team that pushes the boundaries of curriculum development within Social Work.

Reward & Benefits

- A minimum of 48 days annual leave per annum, pro rata (inclusive of bank holiday and University closure days).
- Relocation and Visa Assistance Policies (subject to eligibility criteria).
- Access to a range of CPD to support your career development, with three defined pathways for progression.
- Employee assistance programme with access to free confidential counselling sessions, legal & financial advice, and health & wellbeing resources.
- Automatic enrolment into the Teacher's Pension Scheme with our employer contribution of 28.68%
- Discounted membership to our onsite state-of-the-art sport and leisure facilities
- Beautiful award-winning on-campus working environment.
- Staff benefits scheme, which provides you with discounts across the high street, supermarket shopping, cinema tickets, dining out and more.

About Us

Founded in 1885 as the first non-denominational teacher training college for women, Edge Hill was born from a belief that education could – and should – change lives. It's a university that has always been shaped by those willing to move forward, even when it meant standing apart. Today, Edge Hill is a pioneering university defined by action, where staff play a vital role in connecting students to real skills, real networks and real futures.

The University's teaching, research and innovation transforms lives, creates opportunity and strengthens society. 62% of the University's research was classed as 'world-leading' or 'internationally excellent' in the 2021 Research Excellence Framework.

It has over 12,000 students studying at both undergraduate and postgraduate level. As a university based in the heart of the North West, it takes a connected approach in bringing together education, business, public services and communities.

Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year for Student Experience (Daily Mail University Guide 2026) and 5th in the UK Overall (Uni Compare 2026). In 2024, it was the first University to achieve Ofsted Outstanding for all phases of its Initial Teacher Training provision under the new Inspection Framework.

The University aims to create an environment in which colleagues can thrive, adapt and lead in a changing world. With a strong focus on continuous improvement, inclusion and wellbeing, the University places staff, students and communities at the heart of its success. For staff, this means the opportunity to contribute to a values-led institution, work collaboratively across disciplines and services, and build a rewarding career in an ambitious university community.

Continued investment in campus facilities and digital infrastructure supports an ambitious and inclusive working environment. This includes a £17.4m Life Sciences Building, alongside a £35m investment in brand new accommodation and a Students' Union building which opened at the beginning of October 2024. It has also been recognised as one of the UK's best green spaces for 14 successive years (Green Flag Award 2025).

The University is committed to providing staff and students with accessible, high-quality services, underpinned by innovation, collaboration and a culture that values people.
