Faculty:	Faculty of Health, Social Care and Medicine
Reference:	EHT2408-0926
Grade and Salary:	Grade 10. £53,301 - £59,966 per annum, pro rata. Points for grade: 41-45.
Contract Type:	Permanent
Hours:	Part Time (0.6 FTE)
Location:	Ormskirk campus, L39 4QP

About the Faculty

The Faculty of Health, Social Care and Medicine is a major provider of health, social care and medical education, with a wide range of programmes and a growing research profile. It comprises the School of Applied Health, Social Work & Wellbeing, the Medical School and the School of Nursing & Midwifery. Cross-Faculty research focuses on children, young people and families; the prevention and management of conditions in adults; and improving professional practice.

About the Department

The Medical School includes postgraduate and undergraduate departments. Its established postgraduate and continuing professional development portfolio includes Advanced Clinical Practice through direct-entry and apprenticeship routes, Surgical Care Practice, Master of Surgery, Master of Medicine, Health Professions Education, Medical Leadership, Leadership and Management, and non-medical prescribing. Undergraduate provision includes the MBChB, MBChB with Foundation Year, Physician Associate and nutrition programmes. The Faculty has facilities in Ormskirk, Manchester and on local NHS sites, including a Clinical Skills and Simulation Centre at the Ormskirk campus.

About the Role

As Senior Lecturer in Advanced Clinical Practice (Grade 10), you will make a significant contribution to the delivery of our MSc Advanced Clinical Practice programmes, including direct-entry and apprenticeship routes. You will also contribute to relevant areas of the MSc Surgical Care Practice programme and to related modules across the core curriculum, according to your expertise and experience. You will support teaching, learning and assessment in our Clinical Skills and Simulation Centre and contribute to the support provided to colleagues who mentor and assess students in workplace settings.

You may lead modules, programmes or related projects and contribute to curriculum development, quality assurance, continuing professional development and enterprise activity. Where the role carries significant responsibility for research, you will also contribute to relevant research activity and impact.

About You

You will be an enthusiastic and experienced advanced practice educator or practitioner with excellent communication and interpersonal skills and a strong commitment to an excellent student experience. You will hold a relevant degree in Advanced Practice or Advanced Clinical Practice, or an equivalent qualification, and bring experience of innovative postgraduate teaching in higher education or clinical practice. You will be able to influence, advise and mentor others, support students with diverse academic and personal needs, and work effectively with internal and external partners.

Applications are welcomed from candidates with higher education or clinical practice backgrounds. Academic applicants should demonstrate experience of module or programme leadership, development, delivery and quality assurance, together with workplace-based learning and assessment. Applicants currently practising as advanced clinical practitioners should demonstrate substantial experience of workplace teaching, learning, assessment and supporting learners through their advanced clinical practice journey. A higher education teaching qualification and Advance HE Fellowship, or a commitment to work towards these, are also required.

Reward & Benefits

- A minimum of 48 days annual leave per annum, pro rata (inclusive of bank holiday and University closure days).
- Relocation and Visa Assistance Policies (subject to eligibility criteria).
- Access to a range of CPD to support your career development, with three defined pathways for progression.
- Employee assistance programme with access to free confidential counselling sessions, legal & financial advice, and health & wellbeing resources.
- Automatic enrolment into the Teacher's Pension Scheme with our employer contribution of 28.68%
- Discounted membership to our onsite state-of-the-art sport and leisure facilities
- Beautiful award-winning on-campus working environment.
- Staff benefits scheme, which provides you with discounts across the high street, supermarket shopping, cinema tickets, dining out and more.

About Us

Founded in 1885 as the first non-denominational teacher training college for women, Edge Hill was born from a belief that education could – and should – change lives. It's a university that has always been shaped by those willing to move forward, even when it meant standing apart. Today, Edge Hill is a pioneering university defined by action, where staff play a vital role in connecting students to real skills, real networks and real futures.

The University's teaching, research and innovation transforms lives, creates opportunity and strengthens society. 62% of the University's research was classed as 'world-leading' or 'internationally excellent' in the 2021 Research Excellence Framework.

It has over 12,000 students studying at both undergraduate and postgraduate level. As a university based in the heart of the North West, it takes a connected approach in bringing together education, business, public services and communities.

Edge Hill was awarded University of the Year for Student Experience (Daily Mail University Guide 2026) and 5th in the UK Overall (Uni Compare 2026). In 2024, it was the first University to achieve Ofsted Outstanding for all phases of its Initial Teacher Training provision under the new Inspection Framework.

The University aims to create an environment in which colleagues can thrive, adapt and lead in a changing world. With a strong focus on continuous improvement, inclusion and wellbeing, the University places staff, students and communities at the heart of its success. For staff, this means the opportunity to contribute to a values-led institution, work collaboratively across disciplines and services, and build a rewarding career in an ambitious university community.

Continued investment in campus facilities and digital infrastructure supports an ambitious and inclusive working environment. This includes a £17.4m Life Sciences Building, alongside a £35m investment in brand new accommodation and a Students' Union building which opened at the beginning of October 2024. It has also been recognised as one of the UK's best green spaces for 14 successive years (Green Flag Award 2025).

The University is committed to providing staff and students with accessible, high-quality services, underpinned by innovation, collaboration and a culture that values people.
